Description:

When your furry friend isn't sleeping or playing, he probably wants to get his claws into everything he can. Cat scratching furniture is essential for those who wish to save their sofa from destruction, and now finally MiaCara presents a stylish cat scratching post you will be delighted to have in your home.

Designed by Dutch designer Regina Mol, The Torre Cat Scratching Post features a massive base plate made from real wood to ensure stability, a large curved plywood panel in oak or walnut which is covered in durable needle felt to offer plenty of scratching space for your cat to sharpen their claws, and on top, the elevated sleeping area gives your feline friend the perfect all-round view. Cushions in faux fur are sold separately.
